

Brookside Community Church

Family Vows

Use this card to begin drafting your family vows for Brookside Community Church. As you write them, ask yourself the following questions:

- What is a family?
- What are the benefits of being in a family?
- What are the challenges of being in a family?
- What commitments are involved in being with a family?
- Are there things you value about our congregation enough that you are willing to consider it a family? Can you name them?
- Which of the above commitments are you willing to make to Brookside Community Church?
